The film was released on March 6, 2015 for a variety of reviews. The story plot begins well with the sweet Punjabi couple introducing the audience to the story and then jumps to Chandigarh, in 2014, where an irritated man, while conversing on the phone, loses control of his car due to basketball and immediately applies the brakes thus causing the public bus to stop, when the couple are just side by side and fall down, sprouting up the love that leads to their marriage. Meanwhile, an irritated man stops a local taxi driver, Gurinder (Anil Mange), jumps out of his taxi and begins to create a scene with an irritated man who is revealed to be the owner of a popular café, Dev Arora (Sidhant Gupta), the owner of a popular cafe known as Café Konnect. Back in recent history, dev's past was shown one day, while taking a picture of a cute girl he saw playing with balloons among the children, he ended up helping another woman. Naari (Suzanna Mukherjee) and later take her to his café. Shortly after, the two entered into a live relationship with Dev, who received a huge loan based on Dev's love instinct for Naari, however, despite the big house and large loan shark, Naari Desert Dev was very cool, he wanted to offer her during dinner at a five-star hotel in the pretext of using the bathroom. Pinkesh Kapoor (Karan Mehra), a part-time detective Back in the foreground again, at first there was another generic Chandigarh couple who shared the story of the first encounter. During their first meeting, both boys and girls had a particular struggle because the boys disrespected the girl's ambition of becoming a fashion designer. However, the boy ends up tearing the back of the girl's designer dress by mistake when slipping a cherry ball on the floor, which is squashed by a man. It belongs to Nari, since she is also one of his half-acquaintances. At the time Dev was talking to the phone in the first scene, it was Pinku himself who chased Nari and spoke to Dev, however, it was revealed that Pinku was also profound with Naari and often supported her with disadvantage. It has also been revealed that the man who tried to squash the cherry on the floor was Pinku, who later chased Nari and eventually found her with money belonging to her target. After a few dozen more moves, Naari left, leaving Pinku still unthacked, but later she went to Dave's house to clear her belongings from the big house. Dave's resumption of the story shows him visiting another bank for a loan mortgage, but the bank is compromised by the robbers, and while dealing with the crisis, he meets Palak Mehra (Gunjan Malhotra), the only woman he captures on his camera, which protects him from mischievous women trying to falsely accuse him of trying to accuse him of falsely. The two got out Dev thanks to Palak and asked Pinku to meet at the Velvet Lounge, a stary restaurant, while Palak's friends arrived there asking her to meet at the Velvet Lounge at night in the Velvet Lounge, Palak's friends refused to turn up while Pinku and Dev met, but Pinku made a false plea to use the bathroom and left Dev in clumsiness and Dev had no money to pay. However, they meet in a funny manner, with Palak looking at him as a chicken bait, and Dev sees her as a friend, the goddess Lakshmi, both having fatty foods, but when it comes to paying Dev tokens, his car keys and palak rings, which she wants to wear after her fiance, Left her Dev and Palak on foot to Dev's house, where she admires the beautiful beauty. Palak asked for a change of clothes and occupied Nari's room. Naree turned up at the time when Dev asked her to clear her room, she would throw everything in her room, Palak came back, noticed Naari and condemned her and soon used a taxi, but further revealed that when Dev had called him to reach the Velvet Lounge Pinku was at Dev's house, hiding in the bathroom, as he helped Nari supply her passport and bag before she left. Pinku's return to the Velvet Lounge reveals a narrative character all the time: Haryanvi Don Jassi Chaudhary (Sharib Hashmi) has revealed that while Pinku is chasing Naari in a five-star hotel after being with Jassi the same night when she leaves Dev, she meets Jassi falling on heels for her, and while he sings some lettuce lovebirds that Jassi should give to the local boss. The reformed gangster Jassi, who until then was good business, began to suspect pinku of the false movements and later found him to be a fugitive. In fact, it has been revealed that the money that Nari stole from Jassi consisted of a fake note, which she did. While she occupied Nari's room, Palak did not make herself truly refreshing, but instead noticed the bag and stuffed her cash suit in her purse and purse, unaware that she might get a state bank job at her private bank company demanding bribes. Nari is aware of her mistake and reunites with Jassi, meanwhile Dev chases Palak, who is in a taxi, which is driven by Gurinder himself and succeeds in attracting her attention and affection. He started dancing and the SUV stopped, he stepped out and he started dancing again, little knew that Jassi and Naari were in the current SUV, Pinku, who was backed up by Jassi's men who came into the Velvet Lounge in search of his preative Pinku offer of a home escape of Devrog, raised dumbbells and advised Dev with another rendezvous with Palak, while the two met, confessed their love to each other and found them working after a fake cash suit! The story returns to the same foreground in the first episode in which Dev and Palak meet the audience as married couple Jassi also stars here, revealing that Nari has turned a new leaf into a network employee.
